

Amendment to the Abstract:

Please delete the Abstract beginning at page 14, line 2, and replace it with the following rewritten Abstract:

-- Method for sharing multimedia data and especially images captured by a plurality of cameras provided with image transmission means, comprising receiving of digital image messages that include image data and at least some event data, linking an identifier to each image according to the event data and saving the digital images, receiving an image request that also comprises at least some event data and searching for at least one saved image linked to an identifier according to its event data and transmitting the saved image to an addressee.--